

Section 3. The terms of members of the Executive Board shall be for three (3) years or until their successors shall be duly elected. Terms shall begin on July 1 first of the year in which they are elected. The terms may be arranged such that one-third (1/3) of the Executive Board members shall have their terms expire each year. Members may succeed themselves.

Section 4. The duties of the Executive Board shall be to establish the general policies of the family reunion, to manage the business affairs of the association, to record and maintain minutes of all meetings of the committees and the general membership.

Section 5. The Executive Board may require the treasurer or any other officer of this Association to give a bond in a sum and with one or more sureties satisfactory to the general membership, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of the office and for restoration to the association in case of death, resignation, retirement, or removal from office of all papers, vouchers, money and other prosperity of whatever kind in his or her possession or under his or her control belonging to the association.

Section 6. The Executive Board shall have the power to:

- (A) Transact all business between meetings of the general membership.
- (B) Cause the financial record to be audited annually by a financial committee.
- (C) Fill vacancies, which occur in the Executive Board, following the intent of Section 2 of this Article.
- (D) Change the principal office of the association from one location to another within Greenwood County and designate any place for holding of any meeting of members, including the annual meeting.
- (E) Adopt, create and utilize the association in the interest of its membership.
- (F) Levy annual dues, assessment or fees upon members and set dates for their payment, change the amount of said dues, assessment of fees from time to time and provide for the collection of penalties for non-payment of any such dues, assessment, and fees.
- (G) Adopt, amend or repeal these By-laws subject to the review and approval of the general membership.
